

Colossians 1:15-20

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through him and for him. And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together. And he is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.

Growth Group Questions

---

1. Can you recall an opening line from a book or an opening scene from a movie that completely captured your attention? How does the opening line of the Bible captivate your mind?
2. Why is belief in creation important? What are the implications if God didn't create?
3. In what way(s) is God's creation good? When have you personally experienced the goodness of God's creation? What do these things reveal about God?
4. How does knowing that God created everything through His Son affect your thoughts and emotions regarding Christ?
5. As the rest of creation points humanity to the Creator, what are ways we can point others to Christ? How might we be challenged to be "more than a tree" as we aim to fulfill our commission?

Jesus in Genesis

Genesis 1:1

Pastor Martell Sánchez

