

A World of Injustice
Ecclesiastes 3:16-4:3
Pastor Nathan Hogan

Growth Group Questions

1. Can you recall some of your first memories as a child when you experienced injustice in this world? What was that like?
2. As we face injustice in the world, why is it important for us to begin with the conviction that true and perfect justice is only found in God?
3. As you read the author's description of our deaths in 3:18-22, what about his description rings true to you?
4. What do you think the author means in 3:18?
5. Why is it important for us to remember to lament the injustice in this world? Why do we forget this sometimes?

6. How does the Gospel message uniquely address the world's injustice?

Next Week: Ecclesiastes 4:4-16

Psalm 104:25-31

Here is the sea, great and wide,
which teems with creatures innumerable,
living things both small and great.
There go the ships,
and Leviathan, which you formed to play in it.
These all look to you,
to give them their food in due season.
When you give it to them, they gather it up;
when you open your hand, they are filled with good things.
When you hide your face, they are dismayed;
when you take away their breath, they die
and return to their dust.
When you send forth your Spirit, they are created,
and you renew the face of the ground.
May the glory of the LORD endure forever;
may the LORD rejoice in his works,