

My Redeemer Lives
Job 19:25-27
Pastor Nathan Hogan

Growth Group Questions

---

1. Leading up to Job 19:25-27, what has Job been crying out for?
2. What was a “redeemer” in the Old Testament? How does this inform your understanding of the nature of Job’s confidence in this text?
3. Describe Job’s hope in his redeemer. What will he do? When will he do it? Where will it happen?
4. What do you learn about suffering and hope from Job’s profession of faith here?

5. How can you relate to Job in this text?

Next Week: Job 28

---

Psalm 43

Vindicate me, O God, and defend my cause against an ungodly people,
from the deceitful and unjust man deliver me!

For you are the God in whom I take refuge;
why have you rejected me?

Why do I go about mourning
because of the oppression of the enemy?

Send out your light and your truth;
let them lead me;

let them bring me to your holy hill
and to your dwelling!

Then I will go to the altar of God,
to God my exceeding joy,
and I will praise you with the lyre,
O God, my God.

Why are you cast down, O my soul,
and why are you in turmoil within me?

Hope in God; for I shall again praise him,
my salvation and my God.