Growth Group Questions

1. Review the speech of Eliphaz. What things does he say that sound true?
2. What does Eliphaz say that is wrong? What evidence for these same wrong assumptions do you see in our world today?
3. What do the words of Eliphaz teach us about the nature of temptation? How do you see these truths play out in today's world (give examples)?
4. In what ways does Job show godliness in his response to Eliphaz? What are some things Job says that miss the mark?
5. What differences, if any, do you see in Job when you compare what he said in chapter 3 to what he says in this text?

Next Week: Job 8-9

Psalm 8:1-9

O LORD, our Lord,
how majestic is your name in all the earth!
You have set your glory above the heavens.
Out of the mouth of babies and infants,
you have established strength because of your foes,
to still the enemy and the avenger.
When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars, which you have set in place,
what is man that you are mindful of him,
and the son of man that you care for him?
Yet you have made him a little lower than the heavenly beings
and crowned him with glory and honor.
You have given him dominion over the works of your hands;
you have put all things under his feet,
all sheep and oxen,
and also the beasts of the field,
the birds of the heavens, and the fish of the sea,
whatever passes along the paths of the seas.
O LORD, our Lord,
how majestic is your name in all the earth!

John 9:1-7

As he passed by, he saw a man blind from birth. And his disciples asked him, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?” Jesus answered, “It was not that this man sinned, or his parents, but that the works of God might be displayed in him. We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming, when no one can work. As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.” Having said these things, he spit on the ground and made mud with the saliva. Then he anointed the man's eyes with the mud and said to him, “Go, wash in the pool of Siloam” (which means Sent). So he went and washed and came back seeing.
