

Prayer, Stones, and Serpents
Matthew 7:7-11
Pastor Nathan Hogan

Growth Group Questions

1. What have we already learned about prayer in the Sermon on the Mount? Why does Jesus talk about prayer again at this point in the sermon?
2. What are things you currently pray for most persistently in your life? What things do you need to start praying for?
3. Sometimes we rationalize our lack of prayer by saying we are content, and don't need to ask for anything. How should your contentment and prayer life feed off each other?
4. Have you ever been disappointed with how God answered your prayers? When?

5. How does this text speak to the disappointment you have experienced?

6. Why is remembering the nature of our Heavenly Father absolutely essential for our prayer lives?

